THE AFFAIRS OF EUROPE.

Rumors that France is Seeking the Assistance of Japan.

Preparations for the Opening of the Alberg Tunnel--Stanley's Future--Cannibalism--A Coming Lecturer--Social News Notes.

LONDON, Sept. 16. -- The rumors that France has offered the Island of Corse to Japan, as a compensation for her assistance should be openly declared, are assuming such shape that many of the French consider it but a question of time before it is realized. But this event is extremely improbable, as it is known that Russia has already notified the French Government that she objects to any intervention of France in the Island of Corse, waters, and that an attempt to prevail on territory as a reward for armed assistance will not be tolerated.

The furious newspaper discussion on cannibalism, inaugurated when the news of the war with China reached London, still continues. The Telegraph publishes daily some new phase of the harrowing details of the wreck, and scenes in every way desecrating the acts of the savagery. The Pal Mail, however, has issued a note to the effect that the Telegraph "has lived for a week upon the horrors of that dreadful scene, fatiguing on the foul feast, and gloating with an obscene joy over the revolting details." The Spanish government has issued a note to the effect that the Spaniards should be protected in their rights, and that the Spaniards should be allowed to kill and eat their comrades should be exposed in a court of justice. It denounces in the strongest terms the conduct of the Spaniards, and that so skilfully done that the discussions which have followed the revelations, and conclude that insanity can be the only excuse for acts of barbarism so brutal and so abhorrent to every sense of justice.

The rigors of military conscription in Germany are illustrated by a recent incident at Greiz, in which a number of that city, being soldiers of the Prussian army, were sent to report for duty for the annual maneuvers of the German army. The only means of transportation offered them was to go in a cattle train with a lot of peasants who were also to be sent to the same place. They were compelled to take their places in the cattle car, and telegraphed a remonstrance to the Emperor William at Berlin. A reply came back through military official channels to the effect that the officers were to be held responsible for the disobedience of orders. The two convalescents have accordingly been tried by court martial, and the sentence of the court has just been approved and promulgated.

affairs of England, Germany, which has been in the hands of Bonaparte. It was decided to form an internal oval combination of all the leading manufacturers for the purpose of maintaining prices and preventing overproduction.

The statesman, Northcote, the Tory leader of the House of Commons, is to speak this week making political speeches in Scotland, as an antidote to Mr. Gladstone's Midlothian campaign. The Premier meantime is maintaining his quietude, but his health looks as fresh and vigorous as a man of forty.

A further order for 500,000 pounds of compressed beef has been given to a Chicago firm, marking a total of 740,000 pounds of beef ordered for the Nile relief expedition.

It is now settled that Mrs. Langtry's winter season in London is to be at the Princess's Theater, and Mr. Abbey is very confident of the success of the venture. He has presented a French author to a street play, which he believes will admirably suit Mrs. Langtry. Miss Ellen Terry's sojourn in London has certainly had the effect of wiping out all traces of her former popularity. She is again to appear in a picture house here. While in L. she and Mr. Irving spent their vacation, although occupying separate lodgings, they were constantly seen together. They each day took a drive, and examined a French author to a street play, which he believes will admirably suit Mrs. Langtry.

A FATAL SPREE.

Brother Smothers Brother to Death in a Drunken Sleep.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10. -- Policeman Slims, of the Charles street squad, found a young German, who had been drinking, lying dead in a bundle of rags in a Barnow street, between West and Washington streets, at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Investigation showed the sleeper to be a man whose coat and waistcoat were pulled off him. The man was dead. Slims called an ambulance from St. Vincent's Hospital and the woman who came with it said the man had died of suffocation. The other man, when he had been slightly revivified, was drawn up to speak, and said that the dead man was brother to John Baptist Kubler, a waiter at 6 Stone street. He himself was Joseph Kubler, a waiter at 360 Canal street. They had come from Germany two months ago.

The deceased was twenty-five years old. His wife was dead, in Fifty-ninth street. The brothers went to see her on Saturday night, and while paying the visit drank a pint of beer. They then took a Bell street, where they had a room at 17 Christopher street. They got out of Moore street, and drank two glasses of brandy at the first saloon they came to. John became unable to walk soon after leaving the saloon. Joseph tried to carry him. After dragging some distance, Joseph fell down with his burden, and he remembers nothing more.

FRISBEE'S SECOND FAILURE.

Very Cool Notwithstanding the Charge of Fraud and Larceny.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. -- From Frisbee, the alleged defaulting exchange dealer of the First National Bank of Portland, who was captured a few days ago in New York, has come a full confession of his crime, and entered a plea of not guilty. He waived examination and was held to await the action of the Grand Jury. The total amount of his alleged defalcation will reach nearly $8,000,000, and he has been compelled to leave New York and was reported to be worth $200,000 at one time. He failed and came West. His father was at one time a very wealthy man. Frisbee married a young lady whose parents are reported to be very wealthy. Frisbee is very cool over the situation and says the bank will lose nothing.

A MEDDLER LAID OUT.

Results of Two Drunken Men Tying With a Street Car Conductor.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. -- A pestilential, and pestilential, and companion, named William Castle, boarded an open car on the Blue Island Avenue line. They were some what intoxicated, and conductor Frank Cawley, who has been a member of the association of streets, otherwise made themselves disagreeable. On reaching his destination, Sullivan took hold of Cawley and attempted to pull him off the car. William cast his arms around the conductor, and struck Sullivan on the head with the double-tree hook which he had in his hand, fell him to the ground and inflicting a perhaps fatal wound.

William, however, was more stout and勇敢 than Cawley, and he came out the other side unscathed. He has been making more scuffles. He is looking more stout and hearty, and an expert to remain in London until the end of the year.

Lord Stewart, son of the Duke of Portland, has been arrested in the south of Ireland. He was accused to be a scamp with his wits, and he was surprised at the cordiality of his reception at Cork, where only a few hours later disturbed the harmony of his welcome. He and his son, the Duke of Portland, who had visited a slate factory, and he considered that in view of the widespread misrepresentation of the existing Government, his circumlocution was a most hopeful sign of Ireland's future.

The bathers at the baths of Nice have had a scare which is likely to permanently end the season there. Some fishermen recently discovered and captured two enormous sharks which were disporting themselves close to the bathing grounds. The news quickly spread, causing a panic among the bathers, and many of them have already left for their homes.

An old man and child cremated.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 16. -- The cremation of a venerable old colored man, named Simon Harison, and one of his grandchildren, is reported. They were found dead in a broken Louisiana, at the home of the old man's son, William. During the old man's absence the house took fire. The old man hurriedly dressed the two children from the burning house, when he found them a short distance from the house, the younger one ran back into the building. The old man followed and attempted to rescue it, but the flames had cut off his retreat, and both perished.

Quately Lynched.

WELLINGTON, Kas., Sept. 16. -- Frank Jones, the brakeman who died the shooting in his place Friday night, was quietly buried Monday morning. The body was a frame of fifteen or twenty armed and determined desperadoes to the jail and demanded the prisoner, who was finally given up. The party took him to the new court house, just south of the jail, and hung him to the gang plank used by the workmen.

BRUTALITY TO CONVICTS.

Evidence that Two Were Murdered at Lexington, Kentucky.

Beaten Because They Were too Sick to Work. They Die in an Hour from the Effects--One of the Brutal Guards Under Arrest.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 16. -- The Coroner's jury has finished its inquest into the death of John O'Brien and James Smith, the two convicts alleged to have been killed at the convict camp at the Water-works reservoir. The testimony revealed a terrible state of affairs in the camp, and the conduct of the guards of the convicts by their keepers. Drs. Buckner and Scott, who held a post mortem on the bodies, testified that O'Brien's body showed marks of a blow, and that the blow had been struck upon the head and breast. The bruise was not sufficient to have killed a well man, but would certainly be serious to a sick one and hastened his death. The negro Smith's body showed no signs of mistreatment, except a blow on the head, which was not sufficient to have caused his death. The doctors thought that Smith had pleurisy, and that at neither O'Brien nor Smith were in condition to work. The condition of the men were in an advanced stage of decomposition, therefore the autopsy was not as satisfactory as it might otherwise have been.

SOME ANCIENT PATENTS.

A Wood Saver's Royalty--Perpetual Motion Cranks.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16. -- The preparation by the Patent Office to make a display at Cincinnati, Louisville, and New Orleans, showing the history of inventions from the beginning down to the present time, brings to the surface some interesting facts about the history of the Patent Office and its earliest workings.

The first patent ever issued was granted to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for a method of manufacturing soap. This patent provided that "none are to make this article except in a different manner from the present method of making soap." The soap was to be made by the use of a furnace.

This patent was afterward renewed by Clark, who said it continued during his lifetime. Harris Ranson of Colchester, about a hundred years ago, applied to the Connecticut Assembly for a monopoly of a certain kind of motion or motion of a wheel, and was granted a patent for a "perpetual motion of a wheel." The wheel was to be turned by the use of a current of water.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVE. SEPT. 16. 1884.

Hutchins' Drivel.

The first gun of the campaign was fired last night. Capt. M. C. Hutchins, being duly loaded, shot himself off, before the Blaine and Logan club, at Amazon Hall, in East Maysville. He was in fairly good trim and misrepresented Democratic principles, measures and men in his usual aulacous style. He began by stating that Grover Cleveland was a nonentity, that while sheriff he had hanged an Indian, that as Governor of New York he had vetoed every bill presented to him in the interest of workingmen for the benefit of the monopolists of New York, and concluded his remarks about the Democratic candidate for President by denouncing him as a libertine.

Mr. Hendricks was referred to as a copperhead and the organizer of the Ku Klux Klan in the North—too cowardly to go into the war he had remained at home to stab in the back the men who went to the front to fight in the cause of the purest methods.

Blaine was lauded as a statesman whose fame extended all over the world—the foremost man of his time and a patriot of the purest methods.

The plastering was applied especially thick to Black Jack Logan, as the speaker familiarly called him. He knew him personally, having made his acquaintance on the battle field when Logan was serving over the body of General McPherson, who had been slain in action. The speaker endeavored to make the scene very pathetic and touching, and was so fulsome in his praise of the black man of Illinois, as to suggest the idea that he preferred Logan for President over Blaine.

In referring to the Congressional race he spoke about the only truthful utterance he had made during the evening. He said Mr. Wadsworth was a gentleman, he was a kind-hearted man, he had been known in his time to help with money men and women who were in want and distress, but while a member of Congress he had flickered on slavery, "I, myself," said the speaker, "was right on the subject all the time; I was for abolition from the beginning, but Mr. Wadsworth was not." An excuse for this recency to the interests of the colored race was offered in the statement that the times were appalling and the general impression prevailed around here that the Government was biting off a bigger chew than the Union Democracy thought it ought to take. The defense of the Cicero of Sugar Loaf Hill was lame and insincere.

Mr. Powers, the Democratic candidate for Congress, like Cleveland, the speaker said, was a nonentity. He had never been in the Legislature nor a member of any public body, where he had shown his fitness to be elected to Congress. He was a native of Ohio and a carpet-bagger, which led the valiant Captain to remark, "The meanest Democrat I know are over in Brown County, Ohio. The Democrats of Mason County are gentlemen beside them. In shaking hands with one of them Brown County Democrats I feel like I am handling a snake." "Mr. Powers," said he, "so far as I know, is a gentleman and an upright, honest man, but he is certain to be defeated."

In conclusion the speaker stated that Mr. Wadsworth will carry the district by 1,500 majority. "He will get," he said, "sixty-six per cent. of the Irish vote of Mason County and nearly all the Irish vote of Bracken County." This and a great deal more the enthusiastic orator said in utter disregard of the truth, in support of waning fortunes of his party. The speech altogether was such as Huchins was expected to make and of the kind his Democratic competitors desire him to make. In truth he is a good campaign document for the Democracy.

The Courier Journal says: The election news sent out from Maine is badly doctored. The telegram published clearly asserts that Robie's (Republican) majority over Redman (Democrat) is 19,707, "against a Democratic majority in 1880 of 108 for Plaisted over Davis." This claim is all bosh. The Democrats had no candidate for Governor in 1880; they supported Plaisted, who represented all the elements opposed to the Republicans. Four years ago Blaine's party cast 73,597 votes for Davis; this year the same organization gives Robie 77,779, a difference of 4,182 in Robie's favor. In 1880 the fusion vote was 73,787. This year the opposition vote, including that of Redman, is 62,657. The total vote this year is 140,436, against 147,845 in 1880. Even the pine trees refuse, apparently, to be magnetized by the magnetic state-men, whose gushing son seems to be well up in "rititum."

Tue Cincinnati Times-Star remarks: "The worst men connected with the convict system in Kentucky are not the convicts." Some of the keepers are brutes for whom hanging would be too good, but the Legislature is to blame for making such things possible as lately occurred at Lexington.

Powers in Bôbertson.

DAYTON, Ky., Sept. 16, 1884.—The Daily Bulletin is the paper of visiting Mr. Powers on his tour and is to remain in Court day, the little capital of Robertson was crowded with the best of her citizens. Captain Frank Powers, the next Congressman, was there and created quite a sensation. His dress was simple and his general appearance upon him friends upon all sides, and out of the six or seven hundred people present there was not more than a dozen who did not receive an introduction and none who did not go away with a cordial handshake. Captain Powers had the appearance of a man, and that he would be able to fairly and filly represent the true interest of the masses, and ever be found battling for the welfare of the Democracy. There is no mandarin sentiment or desire to abandon party principle and follow after a Republican leader, simply because of personal friendship. The people there then have a higher conception of politics than the people in the West, they make a man a man specially and as a lawyer, yet, they will not sacrifice their political principles, nor support a man for such reasons, especially in a crisis like the present, when we are attempting to secure a good man for the Presidency. That comes not from the people of the West, we need the vote of the Ninth District in the next Congress. What good will a Democratic President accomplish if Congress should be Republican. The reports from Bracken were very encouraging. That comes not from the people of the West, and the Democrats are united and alive to the importance of the contest. Robertson promises 400 majority for Powers, Bracken will give 800. Cannot we of Mason give 600?"

WHEN Blaine was Secretary of State, he gave orders that Calderon should be recognized as President of Peru, but insisted that he should use his office to confirm the Landean guano concession, worth $20,000, to Shipherd, who was a secret partner of Blaine. Blaine was the first diplomat among guano jobbers, and the first guano jobbers among diplomats.

BLAINE stands convicted of having been a Know-Nothing, a substitute broker, speculator in army contracts, prostituting a public office to his unlawful personal gain, and of being the employer of cheap contract labor imported for the purpose from Europe.

THE New York Tribune, which now supports Blaine, said of him in 1872: "He is a coward by instinct and a bully by calculation."

"BLAINE's Twenty Years in Congress" should be entitled "Blaine's Twenty Years on the Make."

GREEN B. RAUN wants to be Logan's successor to the United States Senate.

The printing for the twenty-seven years on the Twenty-cent cost $500,000. The total disbursements of the Government printing office now amount to over $2,500,000 per year.

The taxable property in the United States is worth more than $17,000,000,000, not including the property from time of taxation by this Government and many of the States.

In 1830 there were only 161 Ministers, Consuls, Agents, &c., in the Diplomatic service of the United States; now there are over nine hundred persons employed in said service.

Besides the millions of acres belonging to railroad and other corporations, the amount of land that is being acquired by foreign capitalists and landlords is fairly amazing.

It is now due the Government at the rate of one million gallons of whisky, which, at ninety cents a gallon, as provided by law, amounts to the aggregate sum of $63,000,000.

The Commissioner of Pensions when calculating the number of the survivors of the Mexican war, estimated thirty-six thousand soldiers and thirty-two thousand widows.

From August, 1882, to November, 1883, 100,000 Chinese landed at San Francisco, whereas, 1,000 landed and therefore of the latter 12,181 had returned. The loss by departure was but 1,905.

MAN OF THE PEOPLE, Flemingsburg Democrat.

HON. Frank Powers has made a good impression among our people this week. He is a man of pure character, consistent Democrat, a good business man and a man of the people, the people he is identified with their interests, and fully in accord with the Democratic platform on all the disputed points of doctrine. It will be his aim to circulate his name and give them an opportunity to judge of his deserts. We feel that the better he becomes known in the district the larger his majority will be.

BE Wide Awake. Yeoman.

The Democrats of the Ninth district must be wide awake and in dead earnest if they expect to redeem it from the Republicans and their electors. They have a valiant and unyielding leader in Frank Powers, and they must sustain him heartily at every point. Mr. Wadsworth the Republican candidate, is an old politician, a good stumper, and thoroughly acquainted with the Republican methods. He has served in Congress and in various public capacities and is brought out at this juncture as the only Republican in the district who has a ghost of a chance of saving it to that party. He must be brought to the polls to be prepared to meet every emergency. Powers is a young man of clear record, irreproachable character, and distinguished fitness. He has gone in to win, and the party must stand by him to a man.

A Mighty Unlucky Pole.

BRADLEY, Ky., Sept. 16, 1884.—A pole erected to support the wires from visiting Mr. Powers on his tour and is to remain in Court day, the little capital of Robertson was crowded with the best of her citizens. # THE DAILY BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVE., SEPT. 16, 1884.

ROSS & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

SOME years ago the Democrats
Did in my nostrils stink,
But now I do appeal to them
To help me or I fall.
I will not be a slavish
To keep them one and all,
But now I ask the colored folks
To help me or I fall.

AMERICA DAVIS, colored, charged with stealing chickens, was tried before Judge Coons on Monday, adjudged guilty and sent to jail for ten days.

The colored Blaine and Logan club of this city, on bended knee will be asked to forgive Mr. Wadsworth's slavery record and come over to him in his extremity.
In what a pitiable position is the Sage of Sugar Loaf Hill.

At the meeting of the Blaine and Logan club in East Maysville, last night, the mere mention of Culbertson's name aroused more enthusiasm than that of any other person mentioned during the evening. Straws point how the wind blows.

A report has reached Maysville that the brakeman of the freight train which left Maysville yesterday afternoon, was fatally hurt last night by falling from the train one mile North of Myers station.
We have had no further particulars of the accident.

Elder George Dassie, of Frankfort, who was to have been here last Sunday, but was called to preach the funeral of Elder George Flower, of Paducah, will preach at the Christian Church next Sunday morning and evening, and at Washington at 3:30 p.m.

The Democratic delegation at the public speaking last night consisted of Messrs.
Robert F. Means, Abner Bowling, John W. Hancock and the writer. A count of noses this morning shows that none of them were converted to Republican principles as enunciated by Mr. Hutchins.

The Dudes won the championship on Saturday by defeating the Red Rangers in eleven innings the score standing sixteen to fourteen. The pitching of Wheatley and the catching of Means of the Dudes and the catching of Cole of the Red Rangers, were the features of the game.

Our grand Democratic barbecue announced to take place at Brittingham's grove, Adams County, Ohio, on the 25th inst, will possibly come off according to programme. Hon. E. C. Phister, Judge E. Whitaker, Hon. Frank Hardon, W. C. P. Breckinridge, Hon. J. B.
Beck, General William Preston and many other distinguished Democrats are expected to be present.

Two following are some of the appointments made by the M. E. Conference in session at Catlettsburg: Union Church, Covington, Bidwell Lane; Main street,
Covington, J. D. Walsh; Shinkle Chapel,
Covington, Ammon Boring; Grace Church,
Newport, A. W. Bell; Belmont, E. L.
Saunders; Dayton, S. G. Pollard; Augusta, H. C. Northcott; Maysville, G. S.
Easton; Ashland, J. R. Eades; Catletts-burg, T. Hanford; Lexington, William MacAfee; Trinity Church, Louisville, L.
A. Pearce; Tolsoburg, J. S. Mariott; Somerset, E. B. Hill. The other appointments have not yet been announced.

PERSONALS.

J. D. Kehoe, of Frankfort, is in the city.

Mr. Thomas Comer, of St. Louis, Mo., is visiting friends in Cincinnati.

Mr. Thomas Nicholson will leave for Houston, Texas, this afternoon.

Dr. T. H. N. Smith and wife and Mr.
Robert Wallingford left for Cincinnati
this morning to attend the exposition.

Miss Laura Fawell and Miss Leachman, of Meridian, Miss., are visiting Mrs. C.
M. Dodson. They have been attending the Baptist Association at Maysville.

Miss Anna Fawell and Miss Leachman,
of Meridian, Miss., are visiting Mrs. C.
M. Dodson. They have been attending
the Baptist Association at Maysville.

Mr. John Brookover, of Brown County, Ohio, who was injured by a fall a few days ago, is thought to be sinking, and no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Mr. Michael O'Neill, of Youngstown, Ohio, who has been visiting his mother at Manchester, passed through this city in his way home, accompanied by the Messrs. McCabe, of Cincinnati.

Misses Carrie and Mamie Culbertson, of Clifton, entertained quite a number of their friends last evening. The occasion was a pleasant one, indeed. Dancing and other amusements were indulged in until a late hour. An elegant lunch was served on the lawn, which was beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns. The entertainment was a source of enjoyment to all present. Among those in attendance were Misses Mollie Dickson, Nora Harris, Nannie Burrows, Violette
Burrows, Maude Wilson, Jessie
Taylor, Sophia Hutcheson and Lizzie Burrows, and Messrs. W. B. Peor, Chas.
Wood, Harry McDougle, Thomas R.
Phister, Herman Wood, E. M. Hendrick, Lea Lovel, Nat Wood, M. F. Marsh and others.

There is
On Market street, Where everything
is nice and neat;
For whisky, brandy,
Beverage wine,
Call on me.
At any time,
There you will find
Always on hand,
Two clever gentlemen—
Rosier & Blane.

If the colored Blaine and Logan club of this city accede to the importunities of Mr. Wadsworth's friends and forgive him for opposing Emancipation, it would be a graceful in doing so to change the name of the organization and call it the Blaine, Logan and Wadsworth club. Let us see if it will not done.

COUNTY POINTS.

Miss Leachman and Mrs. Fawell stated that they understand to do business on the leaves near the Franklin market, with a handkerchief worn about the neck, to denote that they distrust a more definite idea of the entertainment, we here insert the programme.

AFFAIRS IN WALL STREET

"None but the Dead Living in the Parish are Buried Here."

Outside Speculators, Who Were Frightened by the May Panic, Still Holding Aloof—Good Crops Promote a Healthy Reaction.

New York, Sept. 16.—The Sun's Wall Street article says: "The Stock Exchange to-day reminds one of that French country cemetery over the gate of which was painted the classically stupid notice: 'None but the dead living in this parish.' I have had for some time past quite a number of visitors, who, like myself, are not in the Wall Street trade; but nevertheless, not in Wall Street. The few who have come in, however, who bought some stocks at the time of the May panic took them away and went away themselves quite as fast as the pretty holders who were here; but nevertheless, not in Wall Street. The few who have come in, however, who bought some stocks at the time of the May panic took them away and went away themselves quite as fast as the pretty holders who were here; but nevertheless, not in Wall Street."

Messer Jay Gould, W. E. Conner, Frank Work, S. T. White, D. P. Morgan, and others, who were the most prominent and consistent buyers in the market, Mr. Charles Oberon joined them for a while, but has since sold out his holdings and is devoting all his energy to the rescue of the Wall Street Bank, which is the gloomy walls of which he is locked up like a hardworking clerk from dawn till sunset.

The rest of the business of the Stock Exchange is done by room traders who buy and sell a few shares for only two points profit. It is true that all are round, dull, fat, and useless. If a broker cleared his daily expenses he is happy. But it must also be said that everybody is not round, dull, fat, and useless.

This last symptom is a very healthy one, for it promises that when the revival of business comes it will be a sound, steady conservative one.

That a revival must come is beyond doubt, though it may take some time in coming. The abundant crops all over the world must make food cheaper and cause wages to go a longer way than before. This will naturally give an impetus to all branches of trade, and to a greater extent than in the present investment. All this is A, B, C, and there is no need of dwelling upon it, except to show the exceptional condition in which the country finds itself.

But it is not enough for us to have big crops. We must find a market to which to sell them and this is the trouble with all agricultural countries. Russia, India, and Australia are in the same position, though they have the advantage over us of cheap labor and less expense for transportation and speculative storage. In any of those countries big crops without an outlet for them are considered a blessing.

It quite differs in the manufacturing countries like Great Britain, France or Germany. Big crops at home mean with them so much less money paid for breakfasts abroad, while big crops abroad mean so much more money coming in for an increased demand for breakfasts at home.

The difference between agricultural and manufacturing countries ought to be kept in view by those who try to start speculative booms upon bright opportunities.

Another all important point is the growing want of confidence at home as well as abroad in the management of our financial institutions. The current report that Mr. Blanchard retired upon demand of W. H. Vanderbilt is not the only one to strike fear into investors who feel at home. They know, also, something of his recent Reading and Northwestern visit. The fact that he has himself money to invest is a consolation to them.

The dullness of business continues to attract large crowds of brokers to the Sheephead Bay races.

LINCOLN'S DEAD BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Body of a Confederate General to be Removed to Elizabethtown, Ky.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 16.—The body of General and Mrs. John C. Pemberton, the two brothers who fell at Chancellorsville, was interred with military honors Wednesday for removal to Kentucky, where it will be buried next Elizabethtown. A reunion of Kentucky veterans will be held there on the 15th when the body will be received. General Helm was a brother-in-law of President Lincoln, was an officer in the United States army, and was offered the Paymaster Generalship by Mr. Lincoln, which he declined and allied himself with the Confederacy.

REMOVAL OF A BOUNDARY LINE.

NO GALES, A. T., Sept. 16.—The international surveying party has located the boundary line between Mexico and the United States 600 yards north of the old line. They traversed a considerable portion of this town on Mexican soil. The Mexican law prohibits foreigners from holding real estate within twenty leagues of the boundary. The Americans do not care to remain in Mexico to hold their property by force of arms if necessary. Trouble is expected.

SEARCH FOR A MISSING MAN FOUND.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 16.—Henry Mandel, an old pioneer of Klamath County, Oregon, was found dead in Lost Valley. The body was hid in a dense wood, riddled with shot. He had been missing for some days, and was eventually located by a search party. The mysterious tragedy is being investigated.

REV. GURRY RESIGNS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Rev. George Gurry, of Garrison, tendered his resignation yesterday. It was accepted, and he is innocent of the charge made by Mrs. Mary Hinsch, but he could not consistently occupy the pulpit while they were over him. He will push legal suits against Mrs. Hinsch and his R. Ash.

A COMPETITOR OF THE MANITOBA.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Rev. George Gurry, of Garrison, tendered his resignation yesterday. It was accepted, and he is innocent of the charge made by Mrs. Mary Hinsch, but he could not consistently occupy the pulpit while they were over him. He will push legal suits against Mrs. Hinsch and his R. Ash.

SALT RHEUM

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Positively Cured.

ECZEMA, or salt rheum, with its agonizing itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with Cuticure, and kept away by the use of Cuticure in the Great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three ointments, will cure the most obstinate Purpura, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration cool, and unirritating, the bowels open, cure Eczema, tetter, ring worm, psoriasis, Lichen pruriens, scabies, damp skin, all eruptions, que, and many vivant dura, the best physicians of this scalp and skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

WILL McLEOD, 2342 Dearborn St., Chicago, writes: "I have sold this remedy to many persons throughout the country, and am confident in the professional judgment of all the physicians I have met, and I am delighted with it. In every instance where it has been used, its effects have been all that I could ask. I consider it a great blessing."

A gentleman writes: "My wife used your Mothers Friend at her fourth confinement, and I am sure it is the best I have ever used. I am still able to help myself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctored myself, and was never so well and conveniently cured by Cuticure Received (bood purifier) internally, and Cuticure externally. I am now in full health, and am a good example to others."

CHARLES HOUGHTON, Esq., lawyer, 26 State street, Boston, reports a case of salt rheum applied to the skin with great success.

A PRECIOUS BOON TO WOMAN.

WORDS OF PRAISE.

I most earnestly entreat every female to apply to me for Cuticure, and I will add that during a long obstetrical practice, (forty-four years,) I have never known it to fail to produce a safe and quick delivery.

H. J. HOLMES, M. D.

A lady from one of the counties of Middle Georgia, who has been acting midwife to many mothers, writes: "I am grateful to you for sending me your Mother's Friend, and I am delighted with it. In every instance where it has been used, its effects have been all that I could ask. I consider it a great blessing."
